Tannounced to you last Friday that the hondon Conference have really effected "something" at Nac I that then brought shout a sunneasion of arms for a month. I london Conference have really effected "something" at lest. It had then brought stout a suspension of arms for a month. I have now further to ennounce that it has adjourned until fatterday nearly sile that is designated with pretty nearly sile that is decignated with pretty nearly sile that is decignated by courters as the "proceedings" of the Plenipotentiaries at the Court of St. James. All the rest is darkness, mystery, or rather confusion worse confounded, amounting is seet to literally nothing.

And yet I am wrong, for there is one theory, which comes out more clearly than anything else in this business, and which may produce hereafter important results, and stat is the growing and intense hatred springing up between England and all Germany. The impusion which you read is the London press and the sentiments there utter day broyed and reciprocated with interest at Berlis and Vianna, and even as commencial pieces like Frankfort. I would strongly recommend John Bull and family when he makes his yearly travels out of London this year, not to choose the Bunks of the Binner or a German watering place for his expursions. He will stand a chance of exting more water than when in the course of his fravels, and of being "ducked" in the bath or the river to wash but his offenses makes? Feder should the Austrian age in the bath or the river to wash but his offenses makes? Feder should the Austrian age in the bath or the river to wash but his offenses makes?
